MUSICAL FRIDAY NIGHT
AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

There will be a musicale at the Baptist church Friday night under the management of the young ladies of that church. The celebrated Jackson Band of Hawesville, who have a world wide reputation of rendering splendid music, will assist them.

Miss Jessie Reynolds, of Fordsville, has kindly offered her assistance, and the public will have the opportunity of hearing some excellent rendition of vocal music. The entire evening will be one of pleasure with both vocal and instrumental music, interspersed with local talent. The musicale begins at 7:30 o'clock. Admission 25 cents.

Lost His Footing.

Clyde Morrison, former employee of the News office but now of the "Henderson route," at Louisville, was on a ladder cleaning lamps Sunday evening when suddenly he lost his footing and fell. He sustained injuries but not of a serious nature.

EKRON

Several drummers were in town this week.

Mud! Muddier!! Muddiest!!! and nothing but mud!

Max Willett and Jim Wimp were in Brandenburg the second.

Miss Ermine Craycroft was with Claire Wimp Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Pearl Benham was visiting Mrs. Max Willett Saturday and Sunday.

The popular log man, W. N. Hardin, has returned from a trip to his home, near Wolf Creek.

We certainly need a few stepping stones, or a plank walk here and there would help us out considerably.

Miss Allen, Miss Bettie Miles, Mr. Will Jones and Mr. David Meyer were guests of Miss Bettie Jones Sunday.

Mrs. Charley Anderson, son and daughter, of Guston, came up to attend the association and spent the night with Mrs. Stith and daughter, Nellie.

Mrs. "Sing" Brown, who has been an invalid for nearly a year, is able to be up, and with the use of crutches can get about her house. We hope soon to see her out.

Mrs. J. V. Thomas was called to Crothamsville, Ind., to see her little granddaughter, who is very ill. She will also visit her sisters in Louisville before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frymire, of Preston, were here this week looking around and talking with our merchants. We will be glad to have them in our town, but do not like the idea of giving up our old merchants.

Mr. Jesse B. Clarkson returned from Lexington and Louisville, Friday night. We will miss his Saturday trips to Ekron as he has been shipping every Saturday for two months, large number of cattle from here.

The Teachers' Association met here Saturday, March 3rd, and in spite of the clouds and mud a large crowd and a number of teachers were in attendance. No one seemed to mind the mud, but all had a pleasant day. Let us have you meet with us again, when Ekron has had a little sunshine to dry up some of its mud.

SAND CAVE FLAT.

Miss Anna Grant, of near Preston, is visiting Miss Zula McKaughan.

Thank you, Golden Rod, for your appreciation and kindly mention of this scribble.

Mr. Schwab, of Evansville, Ind., has bought the Payne property here, and moved to it last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Crafton Cashman, of near Union Star, are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Foster McKaughan.

Miss Dee Basham passed through here last Saturday enroute to Stephensport where she was to open school Monday, March 5.

We agree with the editor of the News in regard to the Evening Post. We consider it an ideal daily, and appreciate its editorials very highly.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Reuben Ricketts an old and respected citizen of Union Star. The children and other relatives have our sincerest sympathy.

We congratulate Miss Bevie Cain, of Bewleyville, on winning the prize offered by the Evening Post for the best composition. As this is the second prize she has won it proves her to be a talented young lady, of whom Breckenridge county is justly proud.

Brandenburg reminds us of one of Job's comforters in her quaint way of consoling Glendene and denouncing his utterances. But Glendene is all right. He spoke a little too hastily as many of us often do. Fulsome praise is needless, but we have thought of our Glendene correspondent as it was said of Mark Hopkins, that he on one end of a log and a student on the other would make a university.

ROCK VALE

Roads are so very muddy that farmers cannot do much work. Several are very busy at work in the timber.

Miss Maggie Bright is quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle were the guests of her mother Saturday night.

Revs. Richard and McCally are holding a successful meeting at Macedonia.

Mr. John Jones' sons were the guests of their cousins, Edgar and Joe Simmons, Saturday night.

Mrs. Eliza Shreve died of heart disease Tuesday.

Mr. Cas Mason sold his farm to Messrs. Felix Matthews and Rhemus Burch. He bought a farm on Green River near South Carolina, for $1,000.

Mr. Calvin Godsey, of Shreve, and Mr. Lowe, of North Carolina, were the guests of Calvin's sisters, Eliza Overton, Nancy Burch and Miss Vannah Overton.

Mr. Cooper, the merchant at this place, is going to leave us. We wish him much success wherever he may go.

Miss Flora Murphy has gone to attend school at the B. N. college. She is an industrious, intelligent and studious girl. She taught a successful school near Fordsville, where her many friends wish her success.

WEST VIEW.

January and March of this year had two new moons. February had none.

Little May Mattingly has been very sick, but is convalescing.

Mr. Elthue Meador and family visited at Rev. Felix Roberts Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth May, who is visiting at F. R. Roberts, has been on the sick list, but is improving.

Mr. Ernest Aldridge who is attending school at Glendene, was at home last week.

Prof. Truman, of Fordsville, one of Breckenridge's oldest teachers, has been visiting at Harned. Mr. Truman is a great lover of education.

On the evening of Feb 28th Mr. Victor Glascock and Miss Alice Smith were married at the home of the bride Rev. A. B. Smith officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by many relatives on both sides. The contracting parties are very popular young people and we wish them a prosperous and a happy wedded life.

Varying Effects of Accidents.

"Years ago," said a Maine man, "I was standing beside a gun at a state muster at Augusta when a salute to the governor, who had just come on the field, was being fired. The cannon used was of the old fashioned kind, and it was prematurely discharged, with the result that the index finger of the right hand of the man ramming the load home was blown off. The shock, together with the judgment of flying particles of powder, had the effect of driving the blood back from the wound, during which fragment of time the injured man calmly examined his mangled hand, but when the blood did come back it came with a rush and fairly bubbled out in a torrent. The man's calmness left him as if by magic at the sight of the blood, and, with a loud scream, he keeled over in a dead faint."

"They used to tell a story of two men who were working on opposite sides of a buzzsaw. The attention of one becoming momentarily distracted, he ran his finger against the saw, and the severed piece dropped on the other side, where his partner was working. That worthy picked it up, and, with the casual remark, 'Bill, you've dropped something,' handed it back to its owner. Bill didn't faint, but it is only owing to the superior burst of speed developed by his partner that he is not doing time for homicide."—New York Tribune.

A Bad Man to Interrupt.

"When Moses tell de sun ter stan' still"—began the old deacon.

"Dat warn't Moses," interjected a brother in the amen corner; "dat wuz Joshua!"

"Ex I said," continued the deacon, "when Joshua tell de sun"—

"Yoh didn't say dat at all!" said the brother who had corrected him. "Hit wuz me dat said hit! Hit wuz me dat tuck yoh up to bit!"

The deacon's patience was exhausted. He folded his brass rimmed spectacles, laid them carefully on the table before him, walked over to the amen corner, took the objecting brother by both arms from behind and, with the swish of a cyclone, swept him forward toward the door, landing him precipitately in outer darkness.

"Ex I wuz sayin fob dis little incident occurred," he continued, "when Moses told Joshua ter tell de sun ter stan' still!"

Some of the older, learned brethren moved uneasily in their seats. They looked as if they wanted to correct him, but they did not. They let it go at that.

Thomas C. Tousey and Others on Petition.

Kentucky, Breckenridge County Court, Regular Term, Feb. 26, 1900.

IT APPEARING TO THE SATISFACTION of this Court that the petition of Thomas C. Tousey and others, heretofore lodged with the Judge of the Breckenridge County Court and filed in this Court on the 24th day of February, 1900, requesting that an election be held in precinct No. 1, in the Cloverport Magisterial District, Breckenridge County, Kentucky, on the 28th day of April, 1900, to take the sense of the legal voters of said precinct who are qualified to vote at an election for the county officers upon the proposition whether or not spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall be sold, bartered or loaned in said voting precinct, and also whether the provisions of this law and prohibition shall apply to druggists in said precinct, or whether or not the prohibition or law now in force shall become inoperative, and it further appearing that said petition was signed by more than 25 per cent. of the legal voters of said precinct, cast at the last preceding general election held in said precinct. It is now ordered by the Court that the request of said petitioners be granted, and that an election be held on said 28th day of April, 1900, in said precinct No. 1, Cloverport Magisterial District in this county and county aforesaid, to take the sense of the legal voters of said precinct who are qualified to vote at an election for county officers, upon the proposition whether or not spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall be sold, bartered or loaned in said precinct; and also whether or not the provisions of this law and prohibition shall apply to druggists in said precinct, or whether or not the prohibition or law now in force shall become inoperative, and it further appearing that said petition was signed by more than 25 per cent. of the legal voters of said precinct, cast at the last preceding general election held in said precinct.
